COMPLAINT

COLLECTIVE ACTION UNDER 29 U.S.C. § 216(b)

ECF Case

Plaintiffs Armando Aguilar and Benito Cruz Torres, individually and on behalf of others similarly situated (collectively, "Plaintiffs"), by and through their attorneys, Michael Faillace & Associates, P.C., upon their knowledge and belief, and as against Ham N Eggery Deli Inc. (d/b/a New York Deli) ("Defendant Corporation"), Kosfas Kaloudis, and Mike Hunt allege as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiffs are former employees of defendants Ham N Eggery Deli Inc. (d/b/a New York Deli), Kosfas Kaloudis and Mike Hunt (collectively, "Defendants").
2. Defendants own, operate, or control a Deli located at 2109 Borden Avenue, Long Island City, New York 10012 under the name "New York Deli".

3. Upon information and belief, individual defendants Kosfas Kaloudis and Mike Hunt serve or served as owners, managers, principals, or agents of Defendant Corporation and, through this corporate entity, operate or operated the restaurant as a joint or unified enterprise.

4. Plaintiffs were employed as a food preparer and ostensibly as a delivery worker.

5. However, the delivery worker was required to spend a considerable part of his work day performing non-tipped, non-delivery duties including but not limited to, various non-tip duties such as washing dishes, pots and pans, sweeping and mopping the deli, taking out the garbage, refilling the refrigerators with sodas and other drinks, twisting and tying cardboard boxes, and cleaning the 3 refrigerators (hereafter the “non-tipped, non-delivery duties”).

6. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Plaintiffs worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate minimum wage and overtime compensation for the hours that they worked.

7. Rather, Defendants failed to maintain accurate recordkeeping of the hours worked, failed to pay Plaintiffs appropriately for any hours worked, either at the straight rate of pay or for any additional overtime premium. Further, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs the required “spread of hours” pay for any day in which they worked over 10 hours per day.

8. Defendants employed and accounted for one Plaintiff as a delivery worker in their payroll, but in actuality this Plaintiff’s duties required greater or equal time spent in non-tipped, non-delivery duties.

9. Regardless, at all times Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff at the required tip-credit rate.

10. Under state law, Defendants were not entitled to take a tip credit because Plaintiff's non-tipped duties exceeded 20% of each workday, or 2 hours per day, whichever was less in each day. 12 N.Y. C.R.R. §146.

11. Upon information and belief, Defendants employed the policy and practice of disguising Plaintiff's actual duties in payroll records by designating him as a delivery worker instead of a non-tipped employee. This allowed Defendants to avoid paying this Plaintiff at the minimum wage rate and enabled them to pay this plaintiff the lower tip-credited rate, which they still failed to pay him.

12. Defendants' conduct extended beyond Plaintiffs to all other similarly situated employees.

13. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiffs and other employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without providing the minimum wage and overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

14. Plaintiffs now bring this action on behalf of themselves, and other similarly situated individuals, for unpaid minimum wages and overtime pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. ("FLSA"), and for violations of the N.Y. Labor Law §§ 190 et seq. and 650 et seq. (the "NYLL"), and the "spread of hours" and overtime wage orders of the New York Commissioner of Labor codified at N.Y. COMP. CODES R. & REGS. Tit. 12, § 142-2.4(a) (2009) (herein the "Spread of Hours Wage Order"), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys' fees and costs.

15. Plaintiffs seek certification of this action as a collective action on behalf of themselves individually and all other similarly situated employees and former employees of Defendants pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

16. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question) and the FLSA, and supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiffs' state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

17. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) because all, or a substantial portion of, the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district, Defendants maintain their corporate headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants operate a Deli located in this district. Further, Plaintiffs were employed by Defendants in this district.

THE PARTIES

Plaintiffs

18. Plaintiff Armando Aguilar ("Plaintiff Aguilar" or "Mr. Aguilar") is an adult individual residing in Queens County, New York. Plaintiff Aguilar was employed by Defendants from approximately December 2008 until on or about April 20, 2015.

19. Plaintiff Benito Cruz Torres ("Plaintiff Cruz" or "Mr. Cruz") is an adult individual residing in Queens County, New York. Plaintiff Cruz was employed by Defendants from approximately November 2008 until on or about December 2012.

Defendants

20. At all relevant times, Defendants owned, operated, or controlled a Deli located at 2109 Borden Avenue, Long Island City, New York 10012 under the name "New York Deli".

21. Upon information and belief Ham N Eggery Deli Inc. (“Defendant Corporation”) is a domestic corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York.

22. Upon information and belief, Ham N Eggery Deli Inc. has its principal place of business at 2109 Borden Avenue, Long Island City, New York 10012.

23. Defendant Kosfas Kaloudis is an individual engaging (or who was engaged) in business in this judicial district during the relevant time period.

24. Defendant Kosfas Kaloudis is sued individually in his capacity as owner, officer and/or agent of the Defendant Corporation.

25. Defendant Kosfas Kaloudis possesses operational control over Defendant Corporation, an ownership interest in Defendant Corporation, or controls significant functions of Defendant Corporation. He determined the wages and compensation of the employees of Defendants, including Plaintiffs, and established the schedules of the employees, maintained employee records, and had the authority to hire and fire employees.

26. Defendant Mike Hunt is an individual engaging (or who was engaged) in business in this judicial district during the relevant time period.

27. Defendant Mike Hunt is sued individually in his capacity as owner, officer and/or agent of the Defendant Corporation.

28. Defendant Mike Hunt possesses operational control over Defendant Corporation, an ownership interest in Defendant Corporation, or controls significant functions of Defendant Corporation. He determined the wages and compensation of the employees of Defendants, including Plaintiffs, and established the schedules of the employees, maintained employee records, and had the authority to hire and fire employees.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

Defendants Constitute Joint Employers

29. Defendants operate a Deli located in the Long Island City section of Queens in New York City.

30. The individual defendants, Kosfas Kaloudis and Mike Hunt, possess operational control over Defendant Corporation, possess ownership interests in Defendant Corporation, and control significant functions of Defendant Corporation.

31. Defendants are associated and joint employers, act in the interest of each other with respect to employees, pay employees by the same method, and share control over the employees.

32. Each Defendant possessed substantial control over Plaintiffs' (and other similarly situated employees') working conditions, and over the policies and practices with respect to the employment and compensation of Plaintiffs, and all similarly situated individuals, referred to herein.

33. Defendants jointly employed Plaintiffs (and all similarly situated employees) and are Plaintiffs' (and all similarly situated employees') employers within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. 201 et seq. and the NYLL.

34. In the alternative, Defendants constitute a single employer of Plaintiffs and/or similarly situated individuals.

35. Upon information and belief, individual defendants Kosfas Kaloudis and Mike Hunt operate Defendant Corporation as either an alter ego of themselves and/or fail to operate Defendant Corporation as an entity legally separate and apart from themselves, by among other things:

- a. failing to adhere to the corporate formalities necessary to operate Defendant Corporation as a corporation,
- b. defectively forming or maintaining the corporate entity of Defendant Corporation, by, amongst other things, failing to hold annual meetings or maintaining appropriate corporate records,
- c. transferring assets and debts freely as between all Defendants,
- d. operating Defendant Corporation for their own benefit as the sole or majority shareholders,
- e. operating Defendant Corporation for their own benefit and maintaining control over it as a closed corporation,
- f. intermingling assets and debts of their own with Defendant Corporation,
- g. diminishing and/or transferring assets of Defendant Corporation to avoid full liability as necessary to protect their own interests, and
- h. other actions evincing a failure to adhere to the corporate form.

36. At all relevant times, Defendants were Plaintiffs' employers within the meaning of the FLSA and New York Labor Law. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiffs, controlled the terms and conditions of employment, and determined the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiffs' services.

37. In each year from 2007 to the present, Defendants, both separately and jointly, had a gross annual volume of sales of not less than $500,000 (exclusive of excise taxes at the retail level that are separately stated).

38. In addition, upon information and belief, Defendants and/or their enterprise were directly engaged in interstate commerce. As an example, numerous items that were used in the restaurant on a daily basis were goods produced outside of the State of New York.

Individual Plaintiffs

39. The Plaintiffs are former employees of the Defendants who ostensibly were employed as a food preparer and delivery worker. However, the delivery worker spent a considerable amount of time performing the non-tipped, non-delivery duties described above.

40. Plaintiffs seek to represent a class of similarly situated individuals under 29 U.S.C. 216(b).

Plaintiff Armando Aguilar

36. Plaintiff Aguilar was employed by Defendants from approximately December 2008 until on or about April 20, 2015.

37. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Mr. Aguilar was an employee of Defendants employed to work as a dishwasher and food preparer.

38. Mr. Aguilar' work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

39. Mr. Aguilar regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as fish, meats, vegetables, and other supplies produced outside of the State of New York.

40. Throughout his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Aguilar regularly worked in excess of 40 hours per week.

41. From approximately December 2008 until on or about July 2011, Mr. Aguilar worked from approximately 7:00 a.m. until on or about 6:30 p.m. Mondays through Fridays and from approximately 6:00 a.m. until on or about 2:00 p.m. on Saturdays (typically 65.5 hours per week).

42. From approximately July 2011 until on or about July 2013, Mr. Aguilar worked from approximately 5:00 a.m. until on or about 4:00 p.m. Mondays through Fridays and from approximately 5:00 a.m. until on or about 1:00 p.m. on Saturdays (typically 63 hours per week).

43. From approximately July 2013 until on or about April 20, 2015, Mr. Aguilar worked from approximately 5:00 a.m. until on or about 3:00 p.m. Mondays through Fridays and from approximately 5:00 a.m. until on or about 1:00 p.m. on Saturdays (typically 58 hours per week).

44. Throughout his employment with the Defendants, Plaintiff Aguilar was paid his wages in cash.

45. Defendants paid Plaintiff Aguilar a fixed salary of $250 per week from approximately December 2008 until on or about July 2011.

46. Defendants paid Plaintiff Aguilar a fixed Salary of $400 per week from approximately July 2011 until on or about April 2014.

47. Defendants paid Plaintiff Aguilar a fixed Salary of $460 per week from approximately April 2014 until on or about April 2015.

48. Plaintiff Aguilar's pay did not vary even when he was required to stay later or work a longer day than his usual schedule.

49. For example, on numerous occasions, Defendants required Plaintiff Aguilar to stay an extra 30 minutes to an hour to finish his work, and did not pay him for the additional time he had worked.

50. Prior to July 2011, Defendants provided Mr. Aguilar with a 30-minute meal break; however, after July 2011, defendants did not provide Plaintiff Aguilar with breaks of any kind during his work hours.

49. Mr. Aguilar was not required to keep track of his time, nor to his knowledge did Defendants utilize any time tracking device, such as sign in sheets or punch cards, to accurately reflect his actual hours worked.

50. Further, Defendants did not provide Mr. Aguilar with any document or other statement accurately accounting for all of his actual hours worked, or setting forth the rate of pay for all of his hours worked.

51. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Aguilar with an accurate statement of wages with each payment of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

52. No notification, either in the form of posted notices or other means, was given to Plaintiff Aguilar regarding overtime and wages under the FLSA and NYLL.

53. Defendants never provided Plaintiff Aguilar with a written notice, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Aguilar's primary language), of his rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

54. Defendants required Plaintiff Aguilar to purchase "tools of the trade" with his own funds—including approximately 10 polo shirts with the restaurant logo on them for $5 each. Thus, the total cost of the "tools of the trade" Plaintiff Aguilar was required to purchase as a deliveryman was approximately $50.00.

Plaintiff Benito Cruz Torres

56. Plaintiff Benito Cruz Torres was employed by Defendants from approximately November 2008 until on or about December 2012.

57. Defendants ostensibly employed Plaintiff Cruz as a delivery worker.

58. However, Plaintiff Cruz was also required to spend a significant portion of his work day performing the non-tipped, non-delivery duties described above.

59. Although Plaintiff Cruz was ostensibly employed as a delivery worker, he spent at least half of his hours performing non-delivery work throughout his employment with Defendants.

60. Plaintiff Cruz regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as food and other supplies produced outside the State of New York.

61. Plaintiff Cruz's work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

62. Throughout his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Cruz regularly worked in excess of 40 hours per week.

63. From approximately November 2008 until on or about November 2009, Plaintiff Cruz worked as a dishwasher from approximately 7:00 a.m. until on or about 6:00 p.m. Mondays through Fridays and from approximately 6:00 p.m. until on or about 2:00 a.m. on Sundays (typically 63 hours per week).

64. From approximately November 2009 until December 2012, Plaintiff Cruz worked as a delivery worker from approximately 7:00 a.m. until on or about 6:00 p.m. Mondays through Fridays and from approximately 6:00 p.m. until on or about 2:00 a.m. on Sundays (typically 73 hours per week).

65. Throughout his employment with defendants, Plaintiff Cruz was paid his wages in cash.

66. From approximately November 2008 until on or about November 2009, Plaintiff Cruz was paid a fixed salary of $225 per week.

67. From approximately November 2009 until December 2012, Plaintiff Cruz was paid a fixed salary of $250 per week.

68. Plaintiff Cruz's pay did not vary even when he was required to stay late or work a longer day than his usual schedule.

69. For example, Defendants required Plaintiff Cruz to work an extra hour each day without compensating him for the additional time worked.

70. Defendants granted Plaintiff Cruz a 30-minute meal break each day.

71. Plaintiff Cruz was never notified by Defendants that his tips were being included as an offset for wages.

72. Defendants did not account for these tips in any daily or weekly accounting of Plaintiff Cruz's wages.

72. Plaintiff Cruz was not required to keep track of his time, nor to his knowledge did the Defendants utilize any time tracking device such as punch cards, that accurately reflected his actual hours worked, there was however, a schedule that did not reflect the additional thirty minutes per day that Plaintiff Cruz worked.

73. Furthermore, Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Cruz with a statement of wages with each payment of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

74. No notification, either in the form of posted notices or other means, was given to Plaintiff Cruz regarding overtime and wages under the FLSA and NYLL.

75. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff Cruz, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Cruz's primary language), of his rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

76. Defendants required Plaintiff Cruz to purchase "tools of the trade" with his own funds—including 20 polo shirts with the restaurant logo for $5 each )(total $100) and two bicycles ( one for $150. And one for $100) Thus, the total cost of the “tools of the trade”

Plaintiff Cruz was required to purchase as a deliveryman was approximately $350.

Defendants' General Employment Practices

77. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiffs (and all similarly situated employees) to work in excess of 40 hours per week without paying them appropriate minimum wage, overtime and spread of hours pay as required by federal and state laws.

78. Plaintiffs were victims of Defendants' common policy and practices which violate their rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by, inter alia, not paying them the wages they were owed for the hours they worked.

79. Defendants' pay practices resulted in Plaintiffs not receiving payment for all their hours worked, resulting in Plaintiffs' effective rate of pay falling below the required minimum wage rate.

80. At no time did Defendants inform Plaintiffs that they had reduced their hourly wage by a tip allowance.

81. Defendants habitually required Plaintiffs to work additional hours beyond their regular shifts but did not provide them with any additional compensation.

82. Defendants required Plaintiff Cruz to perform general non-delivery, non-tipped restaurant tasks in addition to his primary duties as delivery workers.

83. Plaintiff Cruz was employed ostensibly as a tipped employee by Defendants, although his actual duties included greater or equal time spent performing non-tipped duties.

84. Plaintiff Cruz was not even paid at the lowered tip-credited rate by Defendants. However, under state law, Defendants were not entitled to a tip credit because Plaintiff's non-tipped duties exceeded 20% of each workday (or 2 hours a day, whichever was less). 12 N.Y. C.R.R. § 146.

85. New York State regulations provide that an employee cannot be classified as a tipped employee "on any day... in which he has been assigned to work in an occupation in which tips are not customarily received." (12 N.Y.C.R.R. §§137-3.3 and 137-3.4). Similarly, under federal regulation 29 C.F.R. §531.56(e), an employer may not take a tip credit for any employee time if that time is devoted to a non-tipped occupation.

86. Plaintiff Cruz's duties were not incidental to his occupation as a delivery worker, but instead constituted entirely unrelated general restaurant work with duties including the non-tipped, non-delivery duties described herein.

87. In violation of federal and state law, as discussed above, Defendants classified Plaintiff Cruz as a tipped employee but they did not pay him at the required tip-credited rate when they should have classified him as a non-tipped employee and paid him at the minimum wage rate.

88. Defendants failed to inform Plaintiff Cruz that his tips would be credited towards the payment of the minimum wage.

89. Defendants failed to maintain a record of tips earned by Plaintiff Cruz for the deliveries he made to customers.

90. All Plaintiffs were paid their wages entirely in cash.

91. Defendants willfully disregarded and purposefully evaded recordkeeping requirements of the Fair Labor Standards Act and New York Labor Law by failing to maintain accurate and complete timesheets and payroll records.

92. Upon information and belief, these practices by Defendants were done willfully to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiffs (and similarly situated individuals) worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiffs properly for their full hours worked.

93. Defendants engaged in their unlawful conduct pursuant to a corporate policy of minimizing labor costs and denying employees compensation by knowingly violating the FLSA and NYLL.

94. Defendants' unlawful conduct was intentional, willful, in bad faith, and caused significant damages to Plaintiffs and other similarly situated current and former food preparers and delivery workers.

95. Defendants failed to post at the workplace, or otherwise provide to employees, the required postings or notices to employees regarding the applicable wage and hour requirements of the FLSA and NYLL.

96. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and other employees with wage statements at the time of their payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

97. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and other employees, at the time of hiring and on or before February 1 of each subsequent year, a statement in English and the employees' primary language, containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by New York Labor Law §195(1).

FLSA COLLECTIVE ACTION CLAIMS

98. Plaintiffs bring their FLSA minimum wage, overtime, and liquidated damages claims as a collective action pursuant to FLSA Section 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), on behalf of all similarly situated persons who are or were employed by Defendants on or after the date that is three years before the filing of this Complaint (the "FLSA Class Period"), as employees of Defendants (the "FLSA Class").

99. At all relevant times, Plaintiffs, and other members of the FLSA Class who are and/or have been similarly situated, have had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions.

100. At all relevant times, Plaintiffs, and other members of the FLSA Class who are and/or have been similarly situated, have been subject to Defendants' common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans of willfully failing and refusing to pay them at a one and one-half times their regular rates for work in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek.

101. At all relevant times, Plaintiffs, and other members of the FLSA Class who are and/or have been similarly situated, have been subject to Defendants' willful failure to keep records required by the FLSA.

102. The claims of Plaintiffs stated herein are similar to those of the other employees.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(VIOLATION OF THE MINIMUM WAGE PROVISIONS OF THE FLSA)

103. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

104. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were Plaintiffs' employers within the meaning of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 203(d). Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiffs, controlled the terms and conditions of employment, and determined the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for their employment.

105. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were engaged in commerce or in an industry or activity affecting commerce.

106. Defendants constituted an enterprise within the meaning of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 203 (r-s).

107. In violation of 29 U.S.C. § 206(a), Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs at the applicable minimum hourly rate.

108. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs at the applicable minimum hourly rate was willful within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 255(a).

109. Plaintiffs were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
(VIOLATION OF THE OVERTIME PROVISIONS OF THE FLSA)

110. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

111. Defendants, in violation of 29 U.S.C. § 207(a)(1), failed to pay Plaintiffs overtime compensation at a rate of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for each hour worked in excess of forty hours in a work week.

112. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs, and the putative FLSA Class members, overtime compensation was willful within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 255(a).

113. Plaintiffs were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
(VIOLATION OF THE NEW YORK MINIMUM WAGE ACT)

114. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

115. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were Plaintiffs' employers within the meaning of the N.Y. Lab. Law §§ 2 and 651. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiffs, controlled their terms and conditions of employment, and determined the rates and methods of any compensation in exchange for their employment.

116. Defendants, in violation of NYLL § 652(1) and the supporting regulations of the New York State Department of Labor, paid Plaintiffs less than the minimum wage.

117. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs the minimum wage was willful within the meaning of N.Y. Lab. Law § 663.

118. Plaintiffs have been damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(VIOLATION OF THE OVERTIME PROVISIONS OF THE
NEW YORK STATE LABOR LAW)

119. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

120. Defendants, in violation of N.Y. Lab. Law § 190 et seq., and supporting regulations of the New York State Department of Labor, failed to pay Plaintiffs overtime compensation at rates of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for each hour worked in excess of forty hours in a work week.

121. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs in a timely fashion, as required by Article 6 of the New York Labor Law.

122. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs overtime compensation was willful within the meaning of N.Y. Lab. Law § 663.

123. Plaintiffs were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(VIOLATION OF THE SPREAD OF HOURS WAGE ORDER OF THE NEW YORK COMMISSIONER OF LABOR)

124. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

125. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs one additional hour's pay at the basic minimum wage rate before allowances for each day Plaintiffs' spread of hours exceeded ten hours in violation of New York Lab. Law §§ 190 et seq. and 650 et seq. and the wage order of the New York Commissioner of Labor codified at N.Y. COMP. CODES R. & REGS. Tit. 12, § 142-2.4(a) (2009).

126. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs an additional hour's pay for each day Plaintiffs' spread of hours exceeded ten hours was willful within the meaning of New York Lab. Law § 663.

127. Plaintiffs were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(VIOLATION OF THE NOTICE AND RECORDKEEPING REQUIREMENTS OF THE NEW YORK LABOR LAW)

128. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

129. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs with a written notice, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiffs' primary language), containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by NYLL §195(1).

130. Defendants are liable to each Plaintiff in the amount of $2,500, together with costs and attorneys' fees.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(VIOLATION OF THE WAGE STATEMENT PROVISIONS OF THE NEW YORK LABOR LAW)

131. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though set forth fully herein.

132. With each payment of wages, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs with a statement listing each the following: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL 195(3).

133. Defendants are liable to each Plaintiff in the amount of $2,500, together with costs and attorneys' fees.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(RECOVERY OF EQUIPMENT COSTS)

134. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though set forth fully herein.

135. Defendants required Plaintiffs to pay, without reimbursement, the costs and expenses for purchasing and maintaining equipment and “tools of the trade” required to perform their jobs, such as bicycles, further reducing their wages in violation of the FLSA and NYLL. 29 U.S.C. § 206(a); 29 C.F.R. § 531.35; N.Y. Lab. Law §§ 193 and 198-b.

136. Plaintiffs were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court enter judgment against Defendants by:

(a) Designating this action as a collective action and authorizing prompt issuance of notice pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) to all putative class members apprising them of the pendency of this action, and permitting them to promptly file consents to be Plaintiffs in the FLSA claims in this action;

(b) Declaring that Defendants violated the minimum wage provisions of, and associated rules and regulations under, the FLSA as to Plaintiffs (including the prospective collective class members);

(c) Declaring that Defendants violated the overtime wage provisions of, and associated rules and regulations under, the FLSA as to Plaintiffs (including the prospective collective class members);
